

BASEF 2006 Registration – Draft Form

Filling out the following draft form ahead of time will make filling out the official on-line registration form much easier for you. Please note that you should not submit this paper copy: it is only to help you make sure that you have all the information that you need before you start entering data on-line.

Overview of Registration Process

The following is summarized from the registration instructions at:

<http://basef.ca/2006/students>

- Step 1 Print and complete draft of registration form (this is the form on the following pages. Have your teacher or sponsor review the form once it is completed.
- Step 2 Print and complete required scientific review forms.
Junior projects use one set of forms, intermediate and senior another. Flowcharts posted on the registration page will help you determine which forms in the set you need to fill out. Some of these forms need to be completed before starting your experimentation.
- Step 3 Complete the official on-line registration form.
The form will be available from noon on Monday, February 6th to noon on Wednesday, March 1st.
- Step 4 Print Record of Registration.
- Step 5 Print and complete approval form.
- Step 6 Return signed scientific-review and permission forms by mail.
- Step 7 Print your to-do checklist.
- Step 8 Print and complete safety checklist.
- Step 9 Optional: make changes/corrections to registration form.
You can make changes to your registration until March 1st.

If your regional science fair sends projects directly to Intel ISEF, you may NOT be considered for a place at ISEF through BOTH the YSF Team Canada application process and your regional fair. You must choose ONE selection process to enter.

² Pronunciation

Here are some examples of how you might suggest pronunciation of your name. Hyphens mark divisions between syllables and capitalization indicates a stressed syllable. Use the actual spelling of everyday words where you can. Don't worry about giving phonetic spellings for names like Bob, Mary, Smith or Chan; we can figure those ones out on our own.

Name	Pronunciation
Bronwyn Davies	BRAWN-win DAY-vis
Julie Paget	Julie Pah-ZHAY
Eva Braun	AY-va Brown
Guillermo Salvatore	Gwee-AIR-mo Sal-va-TORE-ee
Kasia Jankowska	Kasha Yan-KOV-ska

³ Please use an address that is actually read and checked. The final confirmation of registration will be sent to this address after the close of the registration period.
